Dear Hypnotist:

Choosing to help others through hypnosis is a worthy endeavor. We appreciate your efforts.

To renew your certification, please complete the recertification form available on the PHTC website s://www.premierhypnosistrainingcenter.com/about-4, and pay onsite or include a check, credit card number, or money order for $150.00 US funds payable to PHTC, Premier Hypnosis Training Center. We do provide reciprocal certification if you provide us with your previous certificate information including the certificate number. (We have a list of SBHTC certified hypnotists).

Your recertification can include webcasts, online courses, CDs, videos, DVDs, classes and hypnosis conferences. The form asks you to detail the continuing education hours that you completed. Make additional copies as needed to provide information about your sources of training. You may attach a synopsis of your training to the individual training form if you wish to type your answers. Please use one form per individual training. For example, if you took 3 classes, use 3 individual forms with 3 synopses.

As outlined on the form, please include the total continuing education hours you completed. Also, include the number of hours for each individual training course outlined on the form. Under title of course, provide the title of the training whether it is a class, CD, or DVD or book home studied or video, etc. Under Format of Training, explain if training was in a classroom, online class (Free trainings document available on website ), DVD or CD of a lecture, etc. Provide the name of the presenter, location of the training, and contact information for the instructor/school as appropriate.

Explain how this training relates to the field of hypnosis and how it will apply to your work as a hypnotist. Explain what you learned from the training.

Please include your contact information when submitting any documents to PHTC. See top of letter for PHTC address.

Blessings to you and yours,
Theresa
